Professor Sandiford,

378 A Markham Street,

Toronto.

My dear Professor Sandiford:

Many thanks for your letter from Dr. Sadler which I am returning. I myself received one from him yesterday conveying much the same information as was in yours. It seems strange that we should have people here who act in a greater panic towards the Germans than they seem to do in England when they are so much nearer the scene of action.

With best wishes for the New Year,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
